“ Dear Debbie - Please accept both my and Kari's sincere and heartfelt condolences.

While I never met your dad, it feels like I knew him from all you've shared with me. I can only assume he was a great father because I believe the apple doesn't fall far from the tree. Based on our interactions and friendship, it is obvious that you are a thoughtful, caring, and wonderful person. That doesn't happen by accident. The strong foundation that results in great adults is usually built by great parents.

Please know that you are in my and Kari's thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.
