“ I had the pleasure of meeting Jordon on his trip to Michigan with Jess. We had arranged a time to meet up as old coworkers of Sam's Club in Portage. We met up at a park to eat our favorite Thai food and of course Jordon was invited. Upon arriving we realized we were one fork short which meant one person had to wait to eat. Jordon made sure he was the person who waited, no questions asked. Not only was he a gentleman but also a person who was fun to be around. We enjoyed many laughs that day and it is a memory I will always cherish. I am glad he was able to come to Michigan and I was able to meet him.

Thank you for sharing that. Jordon had a very big heart and always loved his sisters and their friends. All a mother wants is for her son to be a gentlemen. 💙
