“ Dear Linda,

Our deepest sympathy on the loss of Joe. You both have been longtime friends and our former neighbors for 28 years. Where did the time go? We did have some fun times years back what with card games and bar-b-ques in the summer. Now we are entering the last stage of life and look forward to meeting again in the next world. Joe was a good man and a very helpful neighbor to Frank and me. He will always be remembered in our prayers as well as you and yours. Linda, stay strong and God bless you and keep you always in His care. Love, Hugs and Prayers Always. Remember, Linda, God loves and cares for you and Joe, and so do we. Frank and Rose

“ Linda, our deepest condolences to you and your family. Joe was a wonderful man, Jerry and I loved knowing him. Please know that Joe is with Jesus just like Jerry is now. In a beautiful place watching over us. Know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. God Bless You.
