“ Uncle Joe, as I affectionately called him, was one-of-a-kind. He always struck me as the most no-nonsense kind of guy. We always had the White Sox in common and I was thrilled for him when they went all the way in 2005. Honest, quick with a smile, and loyal to a fault. The kind of family man that many aspire to be. He will be fondly remembered by all who knew him. I’m better for knowing him and the world is less without him. Yolanda, Josie, Danny, and the grandkids, I understand your sadness, but let those great memories of Joe illuminate your sorrow. Rest in Peace Joe, you’ll be sorely missed.
