“ I first met Joe when I was working in Kathy and Joes garden he would let the little white clouds of love out to greet me. We would take about the family, his love of flying remote planes and his car. I loved when he and I would talk about football. He loved his team and I loved mine the Green Bay Packers. One day I was working in the yard and about to leave when Joe came out to say goodbye but wanting to show me this Jersey he had in his hand. I recognized it immediatly, number 4 my QB Brett Farve. He told me that he was a great one and then gave me the Jersey. He said a devoted fan should have it. I still wear that jersey on Sundays when the Packers play.
