“ Turning 96 soon and nostalgia is a constant companion Going over our journal for one of our most enjoyable trips, I came upon reminders of all the grand times we have with Josephine and her son Jim back in 1957. Had we found this obituary sooner, we would have sent our condolences. Tried calling the phone number listed on the trip roster but the number is no longer in service. If you are still around Jim, know that we remember you and your fun and beautiful Mother. Roger passed away in 2008 but we did manage to visit 22 countries...but none surpassed the month in Italy

“ Dear Sweetest Aunt Jo, Always so Loving and caring in a way that was unique in her own CLASSY STYLE! Truly defined the title of Aunt. So many Beautiful memories it would be impossible to describe them all, so I will start with my early childhood. Going to the Santa Claus parade on State street would never have been possible if not for you My Dear Aunt Jo. Such an exciting time to bring Santa to town. Taking the bus and then the sub-way, which I was deathly afraid of, shivering along the pathway and waiting for the Main event. Afterwards was always a special treat of hot dogs and fun. Maybe that's why I am the proud owner of her famous Santa suit and a Life-size Santa which is always featured every Christmas in my home. Thank You, Aunt Jo for always Loving me throughout all my life and overflowing generosity to me and Tony our children and even our grandchildren. She touched all our lives with her joy and peace. We know she has a Very special place with the Lord because he Loves a cheerful giver and I'm sure He was smiling when she stood before Him! Always in our hearts, Love Marion, Tony and family!
