

Judith L. Solomon

May 16, 1941 - August 3, 2015

Judith L. Solomon, of LaGrange Park, passed away peacefully at home on Monday, August 3, 2015. She received her Bachelors and MasterÆs degrees from the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign. Judy taught business courses at Morton East High School, Cicero, for many years. After her retirement from teaching, she started and ran her own business, Judson Word Processing. She is survived by her sister, Lois Morgan, three generations of 13 nieces and 11 nephews, many dear friends, and her beloved cat, Meeko. She remembered each one of her nieces and nephews with a card and a little "Green" for every birthday and holidays, and they all affectionately referred to her as "Aunt Judy the Great." Judy was also generous with her time and volunteered as Treasurer for Indian Head Park WomenÆs Club, as a worker at Second Chance Resale in Westmont, and at home knitting and crocheting hundreds of critter blankets for Comfort for Critters in Glen Ellyn. She will be greatly missed by all those who knew and loved her. A memorial service will be held at Grace Lutheran Church, 4101 Wolf Road, Western Springs on Saturday, August 29, 2015 at 10:30 a.m. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in her name to CatNap from the Heart at catnapfromtheheart.org or by mail to 1101 Beach Avenue, LaGrange Park, IL 60526.

Tribute Wall

“ Judy will be missed by the many who loved her, both family and friends of many years. We look forward to hearing, and telling, stories of her good humor and strong will with those who had the pleasure to know her as their teacher, fellow teacher, businesswoman, club member, and volunteer over the years. ”
