“ I will miss my weekly phone calls with Kevin, every Tuesday. I would call Kevin and say, am I on the air, Kevin would say, Rich from Glendale HTS your on the air. We both would get a chuckle out of that. Kevin taught me so much about college sports, he was like a Encyclopedia of college sports. And he would tell me, your Chicago White Sox are looking good for the 2021 season. I could talk for hours with Kevin..And Kevin I will be thinking of you tomorrow, as I watch the Northwestern Wildcats, and I know you will be watching in Heaven. Rest In Peace my Friend. I will never forget your laugh.

“ Rest well, Kev. I would going to write that my sympathies go out to anyone who loved and cared for the Swamp Rat. That's silly, because everyone who ever spent any time with Kevin ended up loving the guy. Kev, thank you for all the laughs and shared moments. I only wish one more time, we could stand outside on Belmont on a Saturday morning watching cars go by, as you have a smoke.

“ Kevin was as best as you can get for a brother . I will miss him I will miss the questions about sports or music because he knew it all about both . We played in softball leagues together in our younger yrs . He spent his career in radio which was his dream as a kid and I always admired and proud that he did what he dreamed of as kid for his career . We played hockey , football and wrestled in our house growing up , our parents not always appreciating that . In the 67 snowstorm I lost or someone swiped my snow boots he came over and I followed his footsteps in the snow on our walk home I will miss his laugh and our talks about sports and politics .We watched wrestling together and the 3 stooges together growing and happy that we did . He was a great brother whom I love and will miss everyday . RIP Kevin I'm glad you were my brother

“ Kevin was a great friend to me. We talked at least twice a week. Disagreed vehemently on politics but always were respectful to one another. Both lovers of sports, he knew more than me about college basketball, I knew a little bit more about baseball. We went to minor league games together and also talked about our collective interest in radio. So devoted to his son, and I can never recall a person ever saying that they disliked Kevin. Condolences to his family He was a wonderful guy-Ken Cocker
