“ I remember Kim standing up to my wedding in 1978. She caught the bouquet. She was young, beautiful & full of life. As time went on and her health worsened she continued to courageously tackle life and maintain a positive attitude. She was thankful for the joys in her life: her parents, sister, husband, and son. I will remember her as she was at my wedding. She was loving, selfless, and generous. God bless you and rest in peace.
