Aunt Laura, my godmother, my hero. You were so strong, selfless, loving, caring and such an amazing person to have in my life. I will forever cherish all the times we had together. I will not say goodbye, only that I will miss you until we meet again. I know T-man, Grandpa & Keith are taking care of you up there ❤️🙏

“ Laura was the nurse every patient would want. She was compassionate, kind and a true patient advocate. I loved her quiet, dry sense of humor. My thoughts and prayers to her family.

“ Hey Sissy! That is what we called her. That is how every late night text started. I will miss that of course. All the fun we had growing up. Our cruise to the Carribean, leaving work early to go to Indiana Sand dunes and the times we went to the clubs. I will miss all of that but at least I still have the memories. I was so happy when you moved back here but not happy about the reason for it. I wish you were still here but you are in a better place. You are no longer suffering in pain anymore. You got your ticket to the party train and I'm sure Keith is teaching you some new moves. Love you Sissy. Marie Slaga

“ *Laura,
I miss you so much, life is so hard without you.... Not only were you a great wife, but more importantly you were a great mom to our 2 kids.... I could not have asked for a better mom for our children....I know now you are not in pain anymore and you are now resting in peace....There won't ever be a day that I am not thinking about you....I Love You and you are forever in my heart and soul <3...*
