“ I wonder if this post week still be readable by Susan? I feel so bad that I lost Susan's email address that my mom gave me. Susan, I have good memories of our friendship in grammar school. Your dad was what I now would call a "gentle giant." He was quiet, but there was something very kind and caring that one could feel even as a youngster. Your mom was huggable and made the best sandwiches (my first time trying miracle whip :-)) and mini cheesecake tarts. I also remember Ciocia, except for the longest time, I called her Aunt Ciocia, not knowing I was saying Aunt Aunt. So though this post is way late in sending condolences, it comes with caring thoughts wrapped in special memories. We lost John's parents over 10 yrs ago now, and we still feel the loss, so I know it's never too late to say we send prayers and healing thoughts. My best to you and your family, Susan. Cindy Mikulecky (now a Smith). XoX
