“ Linda and I were childhood friends growing up together on 37th Wood. Her family was my family. I loved her mom and her brothers were like my big brothers. We lost touch when the family bought their own house and moved out of the neighborhood. A few years ago I found out she lived only 1-1/2 blocks away from me for more than 12 years.. We talked about getting together to catch up, but it never happened. I was disappointed but am now saddened to hear of her passing. I hope she had a good life. She was a wonderful friend.
