“ Londa and I grew up together as close cousins. We shared going to dances together as teens and when she could get the family car, we would head off on an adventure. One time we got lost and somehow ended up on a frontage road near the DesPlaines River and the Stevenson Expressway. We saw a sign that said I 55 South thinking it would take us home. Little did we know it, but we were headed towards Joliet, IL. When we figured it out, we turned around and got off at 1st Avenue. There is a place where Archer forks to the left and 55th Street forks right. If you are in the left lane, you have to go on Archer or you get a ticket. Linda was a little confused and for that matter so was I and she ended up getting a ticket that night. I don't remember her mom's reaction but we laughed about this a few times. She married earlier than I and I had my kids much later in my marriage so we unfortunately went our separate ways. Lots of fun childhood memories though. Love and hugs to the family.
