“ If you wanted honesty my Aunt Loretta was your gal. Honest without malice. We loved her and sought her out whenever we made it back to Chicago. No matter her pain, she would invite me and my friend Cindy over for wonderful food and anecdotes about the family. She was an elite cook, baker, and hostess but most of all, an elite person in the things that mattered. She loved her family and took pride in every one of them. We will dearly miss her.
