“ Hey Uncle Lou, As much as we all miss you I am so glad that you are home with your mom and dad and so many other family. You fought to live and you did until God took you home. We will join you someday, one by one. Until then keep family peace, you are now in charge. Love you so much, John & Pam

“ To my loving uncle Lou, what a long hard road we all watched you go through. You are now safely home with my mom, dad, my sisters, my brother and your sisters. You will be forever loved and missed dearly. I sure will miss our visits and sitting out in the yard with you. Until we meet again may the angels hold you in their wings. Love you, Cher
