“ My Dear Cousin, My heart and prayers go out to all our family and all your family and friends during this difficult loss. I will always treasure the past couple years that we became closer with your late night texting when you had something to share or discuss and the pictures of you with your children and all your family times that made you so happy. And thank you for serving our country as we all salute you for being a true hero. I miss you as does so many others. In Faith Sympathy and Love, Dawn
