“ Always, always looked forward to the times you and Larry (and kids) came over cousin Maggie. To this day you saying "Uncle Archie this . . ." or "Aunt Carol that . . ." is such a fond memory. Thank you for getting me in to see the maintenance crew at your school so I could make my sales pitches, I was so very young in my career. Smiling in love. Our Gentle Christ hold you now.

“Fond memories of my sister in law Maggie remain etched in my mind and heart of the countless conversations that took place on the front porch of the apartment building on Central Park. These conversations were mainly of when she and Larry dated at such a young age and then how they married. What a love story I thought 😊. It gave me comfort as a young girl dating her brother Phil in that there was hope for us too! These conversations would last for hours!!! Sometimes Phil would have to come from upstairs and tell Maggie “I have to take her home” 😊

Now, I imagine both of them sitting on a porch in heaven having countless conversations.

So grateful our last conversation was that of The Lord and how she was ready to be with HIM and Larry as well.

Until we are all home on each other's porches!!!
