“ Anthony is one man I will never forget, because when I look into my daughters eye and smile and attitude I see him there. I was with Anthony at the age of 18 and he was 32, we knew it was a huge age difference and everyone told us it was wrong but it didn't change anything, at heart he was still an 18 year old too lol, always playing video games and walking around the house in his boxers with his skinny legs lol, I loved Anthony sooo much when I was with him but things happened and we parted ways I fell out of love for him but I cared for him as the father of my daughter (his lil twin) although we fought and argued often he always apologized to me, and we started off fresh, Amari loves her dad sooooo much, so much that most her stuffed animals are named Papi. Rip Anthony we miss you!!!

There are so many things i can say about my cousin. He was definitely one of a kind. He was charming, kind, funny, and smart. The list goes on. I hadnt seen my cousin in over 10 years before i moved here in 2014. But he welcomed me with open arms. He was so proud of me and glad that i was in chicago. He knew i loved him and i told him everytime i saw him. I am grateful to God that i got to spend the last year and half getting to really know my cousin. I will never, ever forget you Anthony. I know that when its my time to go, you will be there to welcome me to heaven. I love you cousin....
