“ Dear Ray and family, I have so many memories of Jane, but the one that really stands out in my mind goes way back to 1945. I was going to a public school and at the start of 5th grade, my mother transferred me to St. Agnes. Of course, by 5th grade, everyone had their little cliques and I wasn't being accepted by any of them, but Jane started talking to me and really changed my life at that point. We became fast friends from then on and into high school and until we both got married and got a little pre-occupied with raising our families - so we didn't get together too much during those years but always stayed in touch. In about 1982, we formed a little group with about 8 of our H.S. friends and we started getting together again about 3 or 4 times a year. It was wonderful - we reconnected again just like old times, talking and laughing - she had the best sense of humor and was one of the sweetest, kindest persons I ever knew. A little piece of me died with her. I will always be grateful and will never forget the kindness she showed me way back in 5th grade. She is in heaven I'm sure, and we'll all be together again some day. My deepest sympathy to you and to all your family.

“ My deepest sympathy to the entire Bronke family. So sad to hear Jane lost her battle with Alzheimers on Saturday. I never knew her given first name was Mary, when I was introduced to this family around 1972 everyone called her Jane, so that's what I knew her by. Unfortunately I'm out of town on business and will not make the wake or service but will keep Jane in my thoughts and prayers and will ask Sue to cover for me.
