“ I remember many Thanksgiving dinners prepared at Klein manner with Mom Klein director of what was a great time of family and great food. Her family was her world of this wonderful Loving woman devoted her life to her children. She is no longer here physically but she is and will always be a part of each and every one of you kids so continue to make her proud and above all stay a family for her let nothing come between you in her honor. God Bless and God speed Mom Klein with Love and respect Linda
