“ Mary aka as Dottie has known me as a little girl. Her mother Stella also knew me very well we shared nothing but good memories.The memories all began on 46th pl off western/ Rockwell in Brighton park. Stella had passed oh that took me a long time to realize she really is gone. Now I’m here to face the passing of my Dottie. This has n is still so hard 4 me to live my life without her. No one will understand the bond we shared from a child Tina teen then to a adult. We loved each other so much Dottie was like a 2nd mom 2 me. She was there when I needed a ear to listen n a shoulder 2 cry on n so many good memories our daily n late night talks. Oh Dottie I miss n love u so much. I’m asking u to come to me n let me know u r resting in peace. God bless your soul n look over me I need u .. till we meet in Heaven Love u
