“ It was Expo 67'... or 69'. Family vacation for my family and Otto's - all great friends. We were walking through a large room, two stories, when I noticed this huge giraffe! It's neck was so long that the head was near to the ceiling on the second floor.
I was in awe... Then something mysterious happened... I heard: "oh, Susie..." "hello Susie". Wait a minute here- the giraffe was talking to me! After a moment of hesitation I began to talk back, conversing with the giraffe. Somewhat shy... but giddy.
A short time later, who appeared from behind said giraffe but dear Otto! So it's true.. giraffe don't talk after all. Hmmph!
Forward to the 80's and I live across the street from Otto with my two children. I stroll over to say "hello" and we remember the Day of the Giraffe.. and laugh. As I go to leave, I remind Otto - "I'll be keeping an eye on you".. In turn he reminds me that he will be keeping an eye on me too.
And we have.. For over thirty years we have been close neighbors and dear friends..
I have been keeping an eye out for Otto and he has faithfully been keeping an eye out for us too. Thank you dear Otto!!
May the Dear Lord Bless you richly.
Until we meet again.. I will Miss you deeply.

Much Love my dear friend, Susan Kozicki
