“ Pat –

I have much to thank you for. Thank you for being a mentor when I was working at Ogilvy in New York. Thank you for convincing me to move to Chicago to join Eicoff (even though I was never able to fill your shoes). Thank you for always being there when I needed someone to talk to about work or family. Thank you most of all for just being you.

I will miss your stories about spending time with Ashton, Jayden and Tyler. And I will especially miss this time of the year when you would message me to say something like “I’m reaching out from Aruba. I just lost a little money but thank God Randy is winning!”

Had thought you were on the road to recovery when we connected at Christmas but Our Lord had other plans. I take comfort knowing that another angel will be in heaven watching over us.

My thoughts and prayers go out Tara and your family.

“ So very sorry to hear this news. Nothing but wonderful memories and thoughts of Pat. Working at Eicoff, she was such a fun, kind and spirited personality. Not to mention, hardworking. My sincerest condolences go out to Pat's family.

Tara Sacony - February 11, 2021 at 04:05 PM

“ I worked with Pat for years and was so saddened to hear this news. She was so unique in that you could be talking the most serious business in one moment, and laughing the next. She was someone I always enjoyed seeing at work, and I've thought of her often since she left. Wishing her family, and all who knew and loved her, peace during this difficult time.

Eric Sorensen - February 09, 2021 at 11:23 AM

Hi Eric, this is her daughter Tara you may remember me. I worked with her there for a couple years. Thank you so much for your note. Very much appreciated.

“ I was very sorry to hear of Pat's passing. She was such a life force: running (literally) full speed during her days at a Eicoff. She really embodied “work hard/play hard”. Anyone who knew her knows how much she loved her family, especially her grandkids. I'll raise a glass (or two) in her honor. She was an amazing woman. My condolences to her family.

“ I used to work with Pat. To a creative like me, accountants can be kind of stuffy. Never an issue with Pat. She was funny, tough as nails, and had a great sense of humor. We shared a love of the Riviera Maya, even met in the Cancun airport once. My condolences to all her family and friends.
