“ Simply wanted to say how much Pat will be missed by not only myself, but the entire extended Sticha Family. I have terrific memories dating some 50+ years ago of Pat and her hair studio. Looking back, she must have possessed the ‘patience of a saint’ in dealing with me, as I despised getting my hair cut as a child. :]. Additionally, I will fondly remember seeing Pat at ‘bunco nights’ with the Ladies (my mother & Aunt included)! Lastly, I had the pleasure of seeing Pat intermittently in recent years, w/dear friends living ‘nearby’. She remained the same beautiful lady I had known throughout my entire lifetime... with the same kind, gentle and loving soul I always remembered.

Rest in peace, Ms. Pat. You will be missed. 🌸🌺🌹

“ We all have major tragedies in our life. I cannot believe God took this beautiful person away from all of us. It destroyed me. I cannot believe something this devastating would happen to me. Not to mention all of her friends and loved ones. God must have needed her more than any of us.

“ *Godmother,
You will be forever remembered for your kindness and gentle nature. Not a single birthday went by that you did not remember me. To this day, I smile when I think about riding my bike and saying, "Hi, Godmother," every single time I turned the corner and rode past your home. You always made me feel special. I love you, and I am sure that all those who went before you welcomed you with open arms. You and my mom will be able to once again read books together. My heartfelt condolences to Tami and family.
