“ I'm heartbroken your Mom was such a comical lady who loved her music, I will miss getting her cd's, may she be singing and dancing up in the heavens I'm sure she will keep the man upstairs entertained. Much love, Marybeth Skinner

My heart is completely broken for the tremendous loss of Granny. I always told her that I would not expect anything less from her than 100 years and I truly prayed for that, but God had his own plans. I am forever grateful to Him for putting Granny into my and our lives. I am forever grateful to God for allowing me to see Granny several times over recent months, sharing her homemade and amazing dinners with her, and just spending such great times with her. Granny, you will forever be loved and greatly missed. Rock Heaven with your love and jokes, and know that you will forever remain in our thoughts and hearts. Rest in peace, sweet Granny. Love, Monica, Joanna, Sammy, and Maksym.
