I worked with Phil for the last 7 months at The Joynt. He was always there to listen. We had so many laughs spoke about different things. He truly was a blessing to this world. I may not have him that long but I feel like I've known him for a lifetime. I could never say goodbye to my gentle giant Phil. He was and will always be my guardian angel. REST IN PARADISE PHIL. I LOVE YOU AND I MISS YOU MADLY. EVEN THOUGH YOUR GONE WE'RE STILL A TEAM

“ I can still picture you walking down 52nd street past Normandy Park. You Always had time to stop day hi how's it going or help with whatever i was trying to do. I looked forward to seeing you with that big smile. Keep smiling down on all of us from heaven. And when I look up to the sky and see the stars I will know we all have an angel in heaven watching over us. Kathy Murray

“ I had the pleasure of working with Philip for the last 6 months. Philip was a loving, kind, generous man. He loved everyone and he was loved by everyone. He always listened when someone was having a hard time. He would give you the shirt off his back. The world lost one of the best

I've never been one for goodbyes, its been 15 years since I last seen you. Even then before I left it was see you later, we caught up on Facebook. You were a great friend, I'll never forget the crazy stuff you did, and the talks we had. Thank you for the memories, and I will never ever forget you and the big giant hugs you always gave me when we saw each other.

“ Phil,

You are one of my oldest friends, my 1st "guy" friend. I still remember making puffy paint t-shirts at your birthday party. As we got older, more kids joined our block, making our childhood the absolute best. We were a little family, you were a brother! We stayed friends all these years... I think back to our high school and college years; and you're there. All the memories, all the different groups of friends and you are always there. Over the last few years, we lost contact, which tends to happen as we grow and become adults but I wish it did not happen. I still remember the last time I seen you & we talked. I wish it was not the last visit we would have. Your infectious smile and kindness is something everyone will remember. You were the epitome of what a true friend was; always there for everyone. My heart hurts but I find comfort knowing you are in a better place. May you rest easy Phil, our gentle giant!

*Love always,
Jackie*
