“ Lisa, Very sorry to hear about Phyllis, thought of her often. Worked with her at Misericordia South and would see her at Mis lunches/outings with the girls. Enjoyed our times together and she did a lot with my sister Madeleine, who worked there too. Keep memories in your heart, it will help get you thru the hard times. Sending prayers.

“ Phyllis was a cousin of my mom, Sharon. She was always known for smiles and laughter. I always looked forward to her Christmas cards each year, as well. Our thoughts and prayers go to Lisa and her family, as they celebrate her life and grieve her loss. Love, Jason and Cherish

“ We met in George Dewey Elementary School in the late 40's, and have remained dearest of friends since. My longest and best friend ever. Phyl decided to go on this last adventure without me, so far. I know it will be fun, because where Phyllis is, fun is. Vaya con Dios, my friend.
