I remember Rafa when I was working at the Interpark Remote Monitoring Center at the Government Center one Christmas 🎄 we did a grab bag and we had to write 3 to 5 things we each wanted for Christmas so, I wrote 5 things 1 hair dryer, 1 flat iron, 1 blush and brush peach, 1 mascara and 1 nail polish any color. We were only to pick 1 of the gifts we wrote down but Rafa he gave me ALL 5 GIFTS Oh my goodness!! That was RAFA. He said, I didn't know what to get my wife helped me pick out everything, I had the best Christmas ever thanks to Rafael and his wife. I am deeply sorry for your loss as we all are, my prayers are with Rafael and his family.

There are way too many wonderful memories to share just one. I will miss your goofy laugh and smile. Our coffee and lunch breaks while tag teaming to help customers. Your energy that was felt before you entered a room. This isn't a good bye, but a see you one day soon in glory. Like they say all family doesn't have to be blood. You did a great job in being a big brother when I needed one. Miss you!!
