“ Aunt Lupe, Raul Jr, Linda and Bob, my heart breaks for all of you and this world is now without such a wonderful man. I will always cherish the few but precious memories I had with your dad. He was truly someone I looked up to credit a lot of who I am today because of his love for me. You all will be in my prayers.

“ Lupe, and Family ,

Let me begin, by stating that you were, and always will be My Dearest Buddy, Raul. We had such great times and hold so many wonderful memories. You are in peace and in the "Gates of Heaven." You will be missed by me, as well as by so many, but you will live on forever. My ❤️ Heart has a special place for you, and you will never be forgotten. From one Marine to another...."Semper Fi," as we so proudly carry our Marine status with us forever. Until we see each other again, remember all the stories and laughter we share, and to be continued when we meet again.

Love you, brother!

“ *Lupe and family - so sorry to hear - just got your Christmas card yesterday down here in Florida - "Rudy" was one of the great old timers and always a bundle of laughs - you could always depend on him and there was never a soul that had a bad thing to say about him - he could work with anyone and always got the job done - may he rest in peace and Godspeed E.
