I liked Raymond very much. He was intelligent and accepting. He was the older cousin to Robert and myself. Patiently and intelligently he would answer our questions about life experiences that he had been through and that were coming our way. Later on in life, it was interesting and insightful to compare experiences with him whether about work or daily life. I always felt warmly accepted by him without any trace of any defensive judgement. A good guy. I will miss him.

“ All of my life, Ray was a favorite cousin of mine. Whenever his folks had us over for holiday gatherings, he was always cheerful and hospitable and made us feel truly loved and welcome. Through the years, he shared our joys and sorrows and his kind words always lifted our spirits. In my book, there has never been a more gentle, fun and all around wonderful guy. Ray, we miss you already. With love from your cousin Gerri and her husband Mike Deepest condolences to Maryann, Kim, Phil, and the entire family. I will never forget Ray and working with him at Inn Realty when I was a teenager. He was a blast to work with and was a kind and knowledgeable man who taught me a lot! I always enjoyed seeing and talking with him over the years in the neighborhood and at at the local Ace Hardware. He will be missed!
