“ Uncle Rich was always one of my favorite people. I remember his laugh and all the good times we used to have at family functions. I remember how mom used to tell the stories of when they were little. I am so very sorry for your loss. Love you all. Carole.

“ Dear Brother,

Perhaps, you being you now and, well, me being me, I can remember you better. Hear you better. See you better. And perhaps you can hear me better too. In between the years we've lived, I can remember your diapers, your mischief, your army uniform... your leaving home, and all the afters. As we plodded toward our tomorrows, a big sister watched the little trouble turn into such a handsome, kind, strong, sweet man. What a nice, nice man. I wish I could be there. But you're here, aren't you. Hello.

*I love you.
