“ Uncle Bobby always treated me with kindness, he always had a big smile and a great hug when he saw me. Uncle Bobby was always full of fun, everyone has the " fun " Uncle, well he was mine. I remember at Grandma Prible's wake in 1973, I was sitting there so sad, I looked up and saw Uncle Bobby he was also sad, he came over and we talked about Grandma. Then he left and rounded up all the other children there, there were 5 more and took us across the street to a restaurant and bought us each an ice cream sundae. Uncle Bobby said that this is what Grandma would of wanted, so we ate our sundae's, told our stories of Grandma and listened to stories from Uncle Bobby about Grandma. I still remember that as one of my treasured memories of Uncle Bobby. He took the time and cared. He is missed, but will remain forever in my heart. Love, Charleen Griffin
