“ I worked with Bob many many years ago (mid 70's) at Trailmobile at 33rd and Justine. He was a lot of fun to be around and a great guy. To the Zeuschel family, my sincere condolences....RIP Bob.

“ My heart goes out to Bobs family. He was a friend to me while in the Air Force and after. We shared many laughs together. You will all be in my prayers and thoughts. I know he was very proud of this family. It was my privilege to have known such a great man.

“ The great memories of Bob from times past have flooded back. He was a friend I had lost touch with until recently and It was good to be in the loop again. Bob and my friendship go back to the 36 TFW in Bitburg, Germany and I am deeply saddened by his passing. My sympathy goes out to Delores and the family. Until we meet again Bob.....

“ I was lucky enough to have spent the better part of a year with Bob while we were stationed in Bitburg Germany together. A hard worker yet always up for a good time... I'm just sorry that "life" had us a different areas of the country and we never got a chance to meet up after we left Germany. Rest in Peace old friend. You'll be missed.
