“ I will never forget when my Uncle Bill Condron passed away. My Dad was quite upset since he was relatively young. I remember my Uncle Rocco decided to take my Brother, Patrick and I out for ice cream. I thought to myself, here is a guy with a large Family to support and he takes my Brother and I out for ice cream. I will always remember that and appreciate it. Sincerely, Cousin John Condron

“ Hello Cousins Margie, Bob, Joe, Bill, John, and Patty:

I offer my sincere condolences. I am sorry but I did not find out in time to go to the Wake. Your Dad was a kind. loving, and generous man. Love Cousin John Condron

“ What a great guy! My earliest memory was being a little girl and my mom & dad and me went to Rocco's house when he was dating Aunt Eileen. There was the largest bowl of fresh fruit on the dining room table! I was so amazed. That Christmas Rocco bought toys for the kids who were at Grandma's. I don't recall what he got me, but he bought a very cool roadster car that had plastic pistons that moved up and down when you pushed it. This was supposed to be for Rick who was really small and just a crawling baby, so when Rocco say how enchanted I was with the car, he gave it to me. And all of us girls would always get a dance with Rocco at every wedding etc. And who could forget the fireworks he brought to the family picnic, or the Mastaccioli warming up on the picnic grill! What a wonderful man who will be missed by everyone who ever got to know him.

Wish I could be there but am stuck in a hotel in Iowa on business.

Cousin Diane, Much love to you all!

*Uncle Rocco, Maybe in Heaven, you will make some speghetti and meatballs, maybe in Heaven you will reunite with some family you haven't seen in awhile, maybe in Heaven you sing Irish Songs with those Irish Ladies that use to sit at our Table growing up I'm so glad I had an uncle like you. You were a gift whose worth cannot be measured except by the heart. I will never forget how you use to say to Me, kiss me on the cheek and then you always turned your head...and we would kiss...Classic Uncle Rocco..... for me, no one but you, ever did that....and I loved you for it.....
rest in peace, you will be missed
Love, Kate, Tom, Tommy, Matthew and luke forever in our Hearts...*
