“ We were all so saddened to hear about Ron's passing. He was such a good guy, loving husband and father and one of the best neighbors ever. We have so many happy memories of being with you guys on Newberry Ave. Not to mention all the times Ron was there to lend us a hand with whatever we needed, from waking up to having our snow shoveled, to helping us plant a garden, and sharing some cold ones in the garage! Ron was generous, kind and and someone we were proud to call our friend. He will be greatly missed by us too. He will be in our prayers.
