“ Please accept our condolences on the loss of your loved one, Ronnie.

My memories of Ronnie go back many years, all the way back to our high school days. Ronnie was such a gentle, big-hearted man. Throughout his illness, I had the opportunity to visit with him and enjoyed his company because I could see the joy in his heart. We always had a great time catching up. May God welcome him into his Kingdom. He will be missed.

Our heart goes out to you Kathi and your beautiful family.

With love, Jose and Blanca Lozano – Houston, TX

“ *Savaglio Family,
This is an occasion that there just doesn't seem to be any words that can remove the pain that death leaves behind. May you find comfort in friends and family as the days pass. Trust that you're not alone. Ps 34:18 says that God is close to the brokenhearted;He saves those who are crushed in spirit. I find comfort in this scripture and I hope that it also benefits you.*

They are riding around in that yellow Cadillac...GAT is going through the gates. George was like a father to him.

“ I send my love and prayers to the family. They have been part of my family for more than thirty years and he will truly be missed. Stay strong my friends and remember you are always surrounded by love. I will miss you pops, but I know you will be watching over your family with pride and joy while you protect them. Love always Dave.
