On May 10, 2023 Our Lord called Ron home to be united with his parents, James and Eleanor, his brother Robert (OSM), and his long-time companion Barbara Radziwon. Ronald was a teacher and Vice-Principal at Our Lady of Good Counsel School in Chicago, IL. He was loved by all his students! Ron also worked part-time at First National Bank as a tax accountant. Ronald graduated from St. Agnes Grade School, Kelly High School and DePaul University (earning his degree in Education) He also was a member of the Coast Guard before he attended DePaul. A resident of Chicago's Brighton Park Community, Ron was a devoted member of St. James Parish located at 2907 S. Wabash, Chicago, IL, where he and Barbara ran the food pantry. “ He was always there for us no matter what. He truly cared for us and we never felt like a burden. Especially a few of us he really kept his eyes on. ;).
We'll miss you.
