“ What an honor and pleasure to have met both your mother and father, I am from the neighborhood and just found out about Rose's passing, I met her at the drug store on Archer Ave where I worked and we became good friends, I'd take Rose shopping to the Jewel, and other places, but have to say, she would often say "Thank you, but I'm OK on the bus, I enjoy the walk too" what a remarkable woman, I will miss her and our conversations dearly. She so loved her family.

“ When I first entered the Braziunas family, it seemed to be a family of men...and then I discovered there was also Aunt Rosemarie. Rose was always warm, loving and welcoming. We have treasured those times with Rose and Wally. Our deepest condolences to Bob, Odile, Sophie, Theodore and all the Sarna families.
