Although I only knew Russell about a year his presence will be greatly missed. His contagious smile was one that lit up the room when he entered. As I watched his body betray him, I found his heart to remain full of life and love. Russell rest on and know you will be surely missed. Love Denise and the Rush Neurology family

“ I will always remember Russell's smile and laughter. I always enjoyed talking and laughing with him. We used to joke no one talked as much as us. I am so glad that I got to know him. Rest in peace Russ. We will miss you.

“ Too many memories to fit on here after a 46 year friendship that was so much more than a friendship. He was my true family and I miss him more than words can say, but I am glad he is at peace and no longer in pain.

“ Paula,
Just wanted to let you know that you're in our thoughts and prayers. We met Russ thru Terry and Mary Lou when they had a place in Fond du lac. Russ was always so bubbly and full of life. We also went to Vegas with him and Joey and had a ball. Russ took Mary Lou and I to see Seigfreid and Roy. Had a great time. Will always remember that. He will be missed, but at least his suffering is over. He is at peace and with Joey now. Take care.....Deepest sympathy, Gerry and Linda BUNTROCK (Russ always called us Uncle Gerry and Aunt Linda when he came up north)

“ Russell favored me with his friendship, his kindness, his gratitude, and his love while all the time trying to convince me that I was the one doing him the favor. Such selfless unconditional love is his greatest gift to me and will stay with me until he and I meet again. He left me with warm memories, a new friend in Paula, and a hole in my heart that will remain always. I will honor his memory through a donation to the ALS Association and by trying to make others feel the way he made me feel in his presence. Russ did matter in this world and that world became a better place for his being here. He remains with all of us who were honored enough to know him.

“ Met Russ a couple of years ago. I was immediately drawn to him. So enjoyed his humor, wonderful stories and his love for his sister. Praying there is comfort for Paula.
