Loving and kind in all her ways,
pright and just to the end of her days;
noere and true in her heart and mind,
beautiful memories she left behind.
She had a nature you could not help loving,
A heart that was purer than gold,
And to those who knew her
and loved her,
Her memory will never grow cold.

“ I grew up living right next door to Sandy. As kids do, we had our "bratty" moments. I was watering the grass in the parkway between the houses and she came to her bedroom window. She decided to make faces at me. I warned her I would squirt her with the hose if she didn't stop.

She didn't.

I squirted.

The next thing I know Aunt Lucille storms in the room and is yelling (wonder why?) and closing the window.

I dropped the hose and made a fast exit.

God bless you Sandi. You were there with me when Grandpa died. You put me on a swing and pushed me so I could go high as the clouds and see him in heaven.

Joycey
