“ My deepest condolences to the Klora family, especially to my dear friend, Tara. Sean will always hold a special place in my heart. He was such a fun loving guy that had a distinctive laugh that I can still hear when I think of him. I remember when he, Eddie, Kenny and others used to hang out in his basement. Tara and I would often peer into the basement window to see what they were up to and end up being told to “get lost.” Then there are the memories of all of us hanging out on the corner of 44th and Talman often being chased away by the family that lived in that corner house. I also remember the Istanbul signed they created and actually hung underneath the Talman street sign. Great times together and will never be forgotten. RIP Sean. Kris Doody

“ Dear Tara, Kevin, and Aaron,

My deepest condolences on the loss of your dear brother Sean. You are in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. I will always remember Sean, especially during our growing up years. I have many fond memories of Sean. He was very innovative and created add on parts to his bike. I also remember him playing guitar, with Steve C. on the corner of 44th and Talman. Whenever I hear the Zeppelin song "Over the Hills and Far Away" I think of them, as that was one of the songs they played back then. I will always remember him zipping through the neighborhood in his little greenish car, I don't remember the make, and all the adventures he had in it. Sean was a kind, fun living soul.

*May Sean rest in peace, and may the many memories you all have keep him alive in your hearts always. I am so sorry for your loss.
