“ Dear Stanley;

You were a long-time neighbor of ours since the 60's-70's.

Several years after my parents passed, I drove through the old neighborhood just to see what it looked like again. Hadn't been there in years. I drove down the alleyway and there you were in your backyard by the fence, so I parked, introduced myself and shook your hand. You remembered me a little bit and we had a great 15-20 minute discussion about the old neighborhood and how things have changed. You were so friendly and outgoing. It was really, really heartwarming to talk with you after all those years and see that you were still hanging in there. I walked away feeling great that day and will always remember seeing you in your immaculate yard, next to that big brick house.

So happy to see how long you made it in this life and that you were obviously very loved. Rest in Peace sir and God Bless you Mr. Z.
