“ Affectionately known as Auntie Stella, she was a beloved member of our extended family. During my youth, I remember time spent at family gatherings that were always filled with smiles and kindness from her.

Thankful for the memories,
RTD

“ Aunt Stella will be dearly missed. She was most welcoming and gracious to those who came to her home. Our annual Christmas visit always included her special treat from the local bakery, along with much laughter and many reminiscences. She often shared a fond memory of Dede Juozas, her beloved husband, our uncle. Dear Aunt Stella, may the Eternal Light shine on you always. Much love, Ina Stravinskis
