“ Ms. Stella was a very special lady. I enjoyed a lovely visit in her home a few years ago when I dropped my dear friend Sharon off at her home in Summit on my way to Milwaukee. I will always cherish that memory of sitting in her kitchen and enjoying a cup of coffee and some coffee cake. What a lovely lady she was. I loved hearing the Stella stories from Sharon and I will miss this amazing lady. I also enjoyed celebrating her 95th birthday and enlisting my friends to send her a card for that special occasion. I know your Dancing Queen is dancing in Heaven. I send sympathy to the entire family and am sorry I cannot attend her funeral.
