“ Stephanie was a wonderful neighbor for decades and a lifelong friend to my mom, Jeannette. They enjoyed each other's company and called each other frequently. She always had a smile and loved to cook and bake. Every time I walked next door as a child she always offered some type of sweet which I never refused. Her daughter Lynn was the focus of her life and elated when she was born. She loved being a mom. I remember her and Bucky making horseradish on the back porch for Easter. They shared it with neighbors and family. It was delicious. Her smile and kindness will be missed
