

Steven C. Stubblefield

November 5, 1953 - August 9, 2013

Steven C. Stubblefield, 59, passed away on Friday, August 9th in Brookfield, IL. Beloved husband of Barbara. Loving father to his two children Jason (Dawn) and Kristen (Casey) and his two step-children Natasha and Anastasia. Adored grandfather of Alexis and Serena Mae. Cherished by his cousins, aunts, and uncles. Dear friend to his neighbors. Born in Jacksonville, IL and raised in Springfield, Steve was the devoted son of the late Charlie and Betty (Nunes) Stubblefield. Steve worked in the commercial title business for 25 years, first in Springfield, then later in Joliet and Chicago. Steve was a plastic model enthusiast his entire life. He was an avid open-wheel racing fan, attending the Indy 500 every year. He was passionate about animals and photography. He was the proud "daddy" of three Pembroke Welsh Corgis and a black Pug, several cats, and two bunnies. He loved Celtic music and attended many Celtic festivals. While he enjoyed his life in Brookfield, he always missed his hometown of Springfield. He was well loved and will be missed by many. Visitation will be held Wednesday, August 14, 2013 from 7 pm to 9 pm at Foran Funeral Home, 7300 West Archer Avenue (55th Street just west of Harlem), Summit, Illinois.

“ As a real estate attorney in Springfield Illinois, on many occasions, I dealt with Steve when Steve worked at Chicago Title in Springfield. Besides being very professional, Steve was knowledgeable, helpful, and friendly. I always enjoyed working with Steve. I was very sorry to learn that Steve has passed away. I express my condolences to the Stubblefield family. Pat Joyce

“ So sorry to hear about Steve. I knew him for many years as a customer of the hobby shop I managed in Springfield. Was always so friendly. Was one of the customers I considered a personal friend, even though I didn't know him outside the shop. God Bless you all in your time of grief.
