Like candy or fruit from a tree
Her presence always there
She is loved endlessly
Her smile, her hugs and her hair*

“ My loving Tia.! Im going to miss you sooo much. Especially Your sweet soft voice & bright smile.! Everytime electric boogie comes on your going to be the first person on my mind. Watching Lifetime drama thrillers at my mom's for movie nights were my favorite ways to pass time with you. Thank you for teaching me so much. I'll never forget when i was having a hard time with the kids and i asked you how did you do it with a bunch of little kids acting crazy. & you showed me how to close my eyes and be still for a moment. Take a breath and Be one with yourself. I loved the way you gave back with volunteering. Ill never forget when you had me coloring tons of coloring pages to turn them into hand bags for the homeless. I remember when I got myself into trouble and had to do community service you put me to work lol. I helped clean out your classroom at Ruiz. I helped clean and organize your kitchen pantry at home. Or when we went on a quick trip to Wisconsin dells and you wanted to go see the stars so badddd and everyone wanted to sleep, we jumped up and went to the beach and seen the most beautiful constellations. Now your my shining star.! Everything you instilled in me I will never forget. You were a miraculous woman. A woman I will forever look up to & be proud to have known. You will forever be cherished and the moments we shared will never be forgotten. One of my madrina's! I will always love you!!!!!!

She was fearless, adventurous, always doing God's work, whether it was praying the Rosary, or taking food to the senior citizens on behalf of Little Brothers... She always was serving others!! I am so blessed to have you here in physical form on earth. Your time to fly high with our Creator and our Holy People ancestors. Until we meet again my precious sister!!*
