“ My mother in law was like a 2nd mother to me. She was very instrumental in making me the man I am today. Along with my mother, Teresa was the most generous person, I've ever met. The Bible says “ There is more happiness in giving than there is in receiving. When some people give, a lot of times they expect something in return, but Teresa received joy from giving. She was an awesome grandmother to my kids (Michael, Aidan, Elias, Sophia) and I'm sure her other grandchildren would agree as well. Teresa has blessed me with a great wife in Nancy, who endured with her mother to the end. Teresa fell asleep with a smile on her face. I imagine she was smiling at her family because she was happy her sisters (Blanca and Rosie) got to say goodbye, her grandchildren were with her, as well as other family member and friends. I also think she was proud of her daughters Barbara and Nancy. Teresa can take comfort in that she raised two strong-willed, independent women, whose husbands aren't too shabby either, by the way. She can rest easy knowing Barb and Nancy will be Ok. My study of the Bible has taught me that one day I will be able to see Teresa again. How I yearn for the day when me and my family can tell Teresa, “Welcome Home”
