“ In behalf of the Sipiora family Jeanne, Eric, Samantha and Jacob we want to send our condolences! Growing up Aunt Theresa was a tough cookie! I always looked forward to them coming over getting uncle Richie his black coffee and playing catch with mary. The best was once Mr Rogers was over and I was done learning my ABC's from Sesame Street and it was over. it was Days of our lives. So many great memories! She will be missed..

“ There are 47 years of memories with my aunt. I admired her strength and her toughness. She’s inspired me to speak my mind on many occasions. When I was little I cleaned her old city home for 5 dollars every weekend. She always made me a ham sandwich on polish rye with butter and it still my favorite sandwich to eat. She and my dad, her little brother Joseph were loud talkers to which I gained that great vocal volume too 😊 she was loyal and brave in heart. Even at death she said as I cried, ‘you gotta go sometime’.....I hope to be as brave as her in my final days on earth. She was extraordinary in every way. She will be missed tremendously.
