“ Foe to life long friend.

The year was 1965,I was enrolled in a woodworking class at Gage Park field house.I didn't have any stain or brush to finish my project , so I elected to use these necessary items from someone else's project that was lying on a bench, unattended and labeled with the name Tom Pahl. Maybe,I didn't replace or clean the items when I returned them, I don't know,my memory fades me. But, somehow this Tom Pahl guy, a fellow student at Gage Park high,unknown to me at the time, found out that I was the culprit,and warned me if I did it again he would kick my ass!

Now fast forward 20 years to the year 1985. My home and family experienced a house fire the day after Christmas at 1 am in the morning and Tom's father after listening to police calls tells Tom about it, at which time Tom immediately comes to our home,helps safe guard the house and for the next three months helps me rebuild the damage.

Yes,we inadvertently became co -workers at a grocery store during high school and became close friends sharing many fun times together. Tom eventually became one of my groomsmen during my wedding to Eileen.

Tom always remained a great friend to my family. I learned much from him in the way of home construction, and till his last day he never failed to loan me his wood stain or paint brush. He was a good friend indeed.

Tom will be greatly missed. Thank you for being our friend.

Love Ed&Eileen and family.

(To Al and Cheryl, we regret not being able to attend services due to our living in Arizona. Please accept our most humble regrets at the lost of Tom and your recently departed sisters and parents. You both have suffered a great loss.

Our thought are with you, Ed &Eileen Czoski
